FUN ACTIVITY TRAIL GLASGOW

WELCOME TO INVISIBLE (GLASGOW)

This Fun Activity Trail will help you explore the city of Glasgow like never before!

It was put together by the team at Invisible Cities. We help support homeless people by training them to become walking tour guides and we offer our tours to the public so they discover the INVISIBLE side of our cities!

Complete all the activities here and win a small prize—more information on this at the end in the Parents' Section. All you need is a pencil and crayons!

Let the Invisible (Glasgow) Trail begin!

GLASGOW FUN FACTS

Did you know these 3 FUN FACTS about Glasgow?

Glasgow was the birth place of the Tikka Masala Curry!

The legend says that the Shish Mahal in Kelvinbridge invented it the 70s.

The world-famous chicken tikka masala was the result of a customer complaint that his meat was too dry; the owner responded by throwing together spices and tinned tomato soup.

Glasgow used to have a castle too!

Did you know there is a street called Castle Street in Glasgow? Where does it get its name from? The Bishop's Castle once stood to the left of Glasgow Cathedral in the city's medieval quarter. All traces of it were demolished in 1792 and nowadays you'll see the Royal Infirmary there.

The story of Sir Roger the elephant

Sir Roger is an Asian elephant and one of Kelvingrove's Museum exhibit. He joined a zoo in Glasgow in the late 19th century - but by 1900 he was 27 and acting aggressively. The story goes that he had too much testosterone so he had to be put down - handlers did so by presenting him with his morning meal then sadly killed him.

Which one is your favourite story?
Ask your parents to let us know on social media!

COLOUR ME!

Colour The Scotsman!

Did you know that the first kilt ever was recorded in the 16th century as the great kilt, a full-length garment whose upper half could be worn as a cloak. Each Scottish clan had its own TARTAN (patterned cloth).

How many different kinds of TARTAN do you think there are?

THERE HAS BEEN A CRIME IN GLASGOW...

MISSING!

The Duke of Wellington is missing his famous cone!! Someone has stolen it.
Will you guess who?
(It is important you read the next 3 pages in the right order to complete this activity)

When you arrive on the scene, there are 3 witnesses to ask questions to.

Mary says:

I saw someone looking suspicious. He started running and went inside the

U S U M M E

Oops!

Letters have been mixed up. Put them in the right order to find where the suspect went!

*I didn't see anything sorry!
But I know the cone was just repainted ----- days ago!"*

$$11+8-5-13+1$$

To find out how many days ago
the cone was repainted- do the math!

Do you know how the Duke of Wellington got this cone in the first place?

The cone is said to have appeared in the 80s and be placed there by locals after they had a party and many drinks! The council removed it several times but somehow locals always found a way to put it back. It is now allowed to be on the statue and is part of Glasgow's tradition!

*I saw someone in a hurry, carrying a large black bag.
She was going towards*

Opened on 21th February 1842, I welcome hundreds of people
every day but none of them stay with me.
My name has something royal about it!

Solve this charade to find out where the supect went!

SPOILERS!

If you haven't answered previous questions, do not read!

In the MUSEUM, you meet Jack. He says:
Of course I was running, I was late and I work in the Gallery!

FUN FACT!

Did you know that in The Gallery of Modern Art, they had artwork by the famous Andy Warhol?

Do you know this famous woman Andy Warhol painted?

In Queen Street Station, you see Babs with a large bag.
. You look at it closely
